THE HAMBURG-AMERIKA
IMPERATOR.

The new Hamburg-American liner Imperator, launched on May 23 from the Vulcan yard, Hamburg, in the presence of the German Emperor and a number of German and Prussian princes, is up to now, the largest ship in the world. For some time the Germans will own the world's record vessel, and one of the finest that ever went to sea, but their triumph will not be of long duration, for they soon will be outshined by the Cunarder Aquitania.

The Imperator has a gross tonnage of 50,000, and her length is about 900 feet. She has eleven decks, and is already called the "Atlantic skyscraper." Her weight, without her engines, boilers, and cargo is about 77,000,000 lbs. (about 20,000,000 lbs. more than a fully armoured modern Dreadnought). She will accommodate about 5,000 persons.

The drawing-rooms, smoking and billiard-rooms probably never have been surpassed in ocean-going steamers. A Ritz-Carlton restaurant, a winter-garden, and spacious ball-rooms are among the features of the new ship. On deck there is a cafe where, when the weather will permit, people will be able to take breakfast, lounge about, listening to the band playing Puccini's "E lucevan le stelle," or one of Herr Lehár's last waltzes. The cafe is arranged in English cottage style, and all it contains has been bought in England.

BINN-ROOM 800.
The great first-class dining-room is in pure Louis XVI. style, and has been arranged with exquisite taste. Eight hundred passengers can be accommodated in it at the same time. The first-class state-rooms with their mahogany furniture and white silk curtains look like comfortable bedrooms at home rather than steamer-ship berths. All are fitted with electric light, telephones, hot and cold water, and have bath-room adjoining. One of the features of interest in the Imperator is the Roman swimming bath, with adjoining massage and gymnastic rooms.

Special stress has been laid on safety arrangements, and principally on watertight compartments, which are more numerous in the new vessel than in any other existing ship. The thirty-six watertight doors have been so arranged that in case of collision the engines can never, under any possible circumstance, be flooded, and they extend about seventeen yards above the water-line.

The Imperator is propelled by turbines of 15,000 horse-power, and each of its four screws, the largest ever seen, are built in one piece of bronze. The vessel will also be fitted with internal combustion engines of the Diesel type.

The lesson of the Titanic disaster has been taken to heart. On board the Imperator there will be daily lifeboat drills. The boats are numerous enough to accommodate all of the 5,000 passengers and crew. There will also be daily fire drills and water-tight door drills. Every night, and on foggy days, the ship will steam with her water-tight compartments closed.

WHAT RUSKIN SAID.

There seems a cruel irony of coincidence in the fact that the old wooden tub, the Success, after more than a century's buffeting by wind and wave, is about to start upon a voyage across the Atlantic. She was built of teak 120 years ago for the China tea trade. As the seas at that time were infested with pirates, she was armed with seven guns, and also still bears on her bowsprit the marks of shots that she received in conflicts with these robbers. The Government later purchased her and converted her into a convict ship. She was furnished with 72 cells, and for many years was engaged in this dismal traffic. She still retains the fittings and accessories of her convict-carrying days, and some enterprising individuals are taking her across the Atlantic, where she will be on exhibition at some of the American ports. "I always told them iron would not float," was Ruskin's comment on the founding of a steamship of his day. The Success still floats, and that, after all, is a ship's chief virtue.

Mr. A. Yamada, representing the Japan Cotton Trading Company, has paid $17,000 for a seat on the New York Cotton Exchange.

The Yokohama Office of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company's Royal Mail Steamship Line is in receipt of a wireless message from the R.M.S. Empress of Japan, sent yesterday, when the vessel was 1,000 miles distant from Japan, advising all well, and that the commander expects to reach Yokohama on Wednesday the 20th instant.

According to the Egyptian Gazette, it appears from a case which happened in Cairo that the famous remedy "606" is capable of curing hydrophobia. The "Egyptian" relates that a certain girl was bitten by a mad dog, but the symptoms of hydrophobia were not apparent till it was too late to apply the Pasteur treatment. Dr. Jonin, the physician in charge of the case, had a happy inspiration. He injected his patient with "606" and to his great surprise the girl showed signs of almost immediate improvement the following morning.

PARTIAL PARALYSIS BENEFITED. Persons troubled with partial paralysis are often very much benefited by massaging the affected parts thoroughly when applying Chamberlain's Pain-Relief. This liniment also relieves rheumatic pains.

For sale by all Chemists and Stores.

CAMANACE OR SHINTY.

The Scottish Clans Association of London had their usual Whitsun match at Wimbledon when the kilt and Glengarry,

the Gaidie and the bagpipes were strongly in evidence. Shinty can boast of a long history. According to Dr Robert Craig,

it is undoubtedly the game of the Gael.

In Martin's description of St. Kilda at the beginning of the 18th century, the game is described as follows:— "They use for their diversion short clubs and balls of wood;

the sand is a fair field for this sport and in which they take a great pleasure. They play for eggs, fowls, hooks, or tobacco; and, so eager are they for victory that they strip themselves to the shirt to obtain it."

Logan also mentions it in his day under the name of "cluich-bhail" —ball-play. He says,

"Great numbers collect on a plain, chiefly about Christmas, and dividing into parties of twelve and upwards on side, endeavour

by means of sticks, crooked at the lower end, to drive a ball to a certain goal."

The balls in Ayrshire, "he tells us," were made of wood, and in Bede they were formed of hair, hard and firmly twisted.

Shinty is somewhat similar to the Irish game of hurling, in the playing of which golfers will be interested to learn, no penalty could be inflicted for striking for a ball that went out of bounds into private property.

only for likely emergencies, but even for combinations that might unexpectedly arise to dislodge the position we have done so much to maintain, and which is recognised by all as being necessary to the solidity and even to the safety of our Empire. The Supplementary Estimates to the Navy, Mr. LLOYD GEORGE explained would "This year . . . not exceed a million sterling, but further heavy payments would fall due in subsequent years, as the result of the programme which Mr. CHURCHILL had found it necessary to outline." In the face of facts, such expenditure is not only the bounden duty of the Admiralty to propose but of the nation to agree to willingly and without comment, except with regard to the regrettable necessity of it being incurred.

Mr. LLOYD GEORGE's references to our East African Protectorate make pleasant reading, and all will agree with him that "there is no doubt at all about the enormous possibilities of that great country." The possibilities, indeed, are making themselves more and more evident every year, and if only from the fact that we have in Uganda a probable source of cotton production, which will tend to keep the factories of Lancashire more independent of the iniquitous trust and combine manoeuvres of the American market, such a country is well worth the money that is required for its development. Five of the six and half million sterling surplus, it is pleasant to note, will go towards the further reduction of the nation's debt, and while the present Administration has not much to boast of in the way of constructive legislation or even of far-seeing statesmanship, yet they may rightly pride themselves, as evidently they do, upon the fact that they have been able to reduce the National Debt by a substantial sum.

The Budget points to the Old Country's continued progress and to the Empire's solidification and future stability; and must make pleasant reading for all loyal Britons who are working for the good and for the honour of the Homeland in various parts of the world.

THE BUDGET STATEMENT.

THOUGH we are not yet in possession of the all the facts, made by the Chancellor of the Exchequer in his Budget Statement, presented to the House of Commons on Monday, yet from the admirable summary telegraphed to us by Reuter's Agency, which we published in yesterday's issue, there is abundance to at least indicate that the Old Country, despite the constantly recurring industrial upheaval of the past year, is still forging ahead on the true path of progress. Not only so, but she can still indulge in the pleasant sensation of being a "Dreamer of dreams" with regard to future expansion of her Imperial power.

Mr. LLOYD GEORGE's statement was apparently a plain unvarnished tale of the country's commercial progress during the past financial year; and, as we have already stated, it was to all appearance eminently satisfactory from every point of view. The surplus, though not a large one, was certainly larger than many people would have ventured to predict it likely, to be some months ago, and the manner in which it is to be allocated is certainly one which should commend itself to most people. Though not first in the order of its coming, the reference to the Supplementary Estimates for our Navy will, nevertheless, it is clear, the most important matter not only from the Chancellor of the Exchequer's point of view but will also be so in the opinion of all who best know the real needs of the country. There is no one who deplores the necessity for greater expenditure than is at present being incurred on our Navy more than those who most clearly realise the necessity for the additional estimates, and few will be found to cavil at the further amount needed, though all will deplore the necessity that gives rise to it. If there is one thing more clearly established in the minds of all it is that our Navy must be supreme, must be ready for all emergencies, and not

NEWS OF THE DAY.

It is notified to-day that Monday, July 1st, will be a Bank Holiday.

The cargo of silk shipped on board the M. M. s.s. Yarrow which left this port on the 21st inst. was delivered in Lyons on the 24th inst.

Mei Cheung sends us a good photograph of a group consisting of the guests invited to the House of Commons to meet Sir Charles Eliot, first Principal of Hongkong University.

Fifteen months' imprisonment was the sentence passed recently in London on George Liu, 31, of Plympton-road, Brixton, the man who has been going about the West-end ruining ladies' dresses by throwing ink on them. He had previously been convicted and bound over for polluting a lady's cravat worth £70. There had been innumerable complaints by ladies. Evidence was given by the doctor of Brixton Prison that the man was suffering from a certain form of lunacy, but the judge said that that was a matter for the authorities.

That things are not quite as they should be in the upper West River districts, is again evidenced by the very small number of junks appearing from those parts. The few that have arrived seem to have crept through in fear and trembling, and tell a fearful tale of oppression and robbery. Apparently, in the vicinity of Shok-ki, is a powerful pirate chief with a large band of followers, who has struck terror into the hearts of the junk masters. This worthy has laid down a law that every junk wishing a safe conduct must obtain a pass with his chop, for which he has to pay $200, or take the risk of losing all his property and cargo. If one chief's chop were sufficient, conditions would be bad enough; but the Shok-ki pirate's chop is no guarantee that another joker further down the river might not demand another squeeze. It is to be hoped that soon these robbers may fall out amongst themselves and make an end of each other, like the proverbial Kilkenny Cats; as apparently the Government in either indifference or incapacity of putting an end to these outrages.

Mr. Bowley: Did you notice any marks on the port door?

Witness: The door appeared to have been cut with a chisel. The cut was about an inch deep, but it did not go through the door.

Witness, continuing, said that there were other marks which appeared to indicate that some instrument had been inserted as a lever with the object of opening the door.

Mr. Bowley: Could you have opened the door yourself?

Witness: Not by myself; I could with assistance.

Mr. Bowley: Could this manner have been used?

Witness: Not as it is. It might have been if a piece of wood had been used with the spanner.

Mr. Bowley: Would it cause much noise to open No. 3 Hatch to the extent that it was opened?

Witness: No.

The witness then added

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The English Mail of the 25th May was delivered in London on the 25th June.

H.M.S. Robin and torpedo-boat 038 arrived in the Harbour to-day from the West River.

Major Blennerhassett, of the Inniskillings, returned by the Cheongshing to the north yesterday after a holiday here and in Manila. The Inniskillings will probably be transferred to Scanderoon, India, from Tientsin in October. They will stay about ten days at Stonecutters Islands on their way out.

The Qaata, bound from Singapore to Saigon, broke her tail end shafts on the 21st inst., but luckily within a distance of only 5 miles from Saigon. She was taken in tow, up to the Port and now awaits the fitting of a new shaft. The Qaata is sister ship to the ill-fated Quinta, now ashore on the Paracels. Messrs. Siemens and Co. are her agents here.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Mr. Meischko Smith, of the Asiatic Petroleum Company, left the Colony by the Shinyo Maru yesterday.

Mr. C. Berkeley Mitchell, secretary to the Municipal Council and Superintendent of Police at Kulingan, Amoy, was recently found dead. His death is attributed to a gunshot wound in the head, evidently self-inflicted. Mr. Mitchell was formerly in the Royal West Kent Regiment and had served with that regiment in Egypt, South Africa, Ceylon and Hongkong. The deceased, who was known to several Hongkong residents, leaves a widow.

POLICE COURT ITEMS.

The following cases were heard at the Magistracy this morning:

A CHINESE SUMMONS.

A captain in the Baluchistan Infantry was summoned at the instance of a clerk employed at the Dairy Farm at Kowloon, with assault.

The captain issued a cross-summons against the clerk for disorderly behaviour. The case was remanded until to-morrow, the amount of bail being fixed at $250.

CHARGED AN STOWAWAYS.

Mr. Irving had before him a case in which two Chinese girls and a man, who said he was the father of one of the girls, were charged with being stowaways on board the Shinyo Maru.

The defendants were remanded until to-morrow, the amount of bail being fixed at $250.

POCKET-PICKING.

A Chinese was charged with the theft of a purse from the pocket of a store-keeper.

Evidence given by the police was to the effect that when the defendant was arrested an instrument used for pocket-picking was found upon him. He was sentenced to six weeks' imprisonment and four hours' stocks.

STEALING PAINT.

A sentence of three months' imprisonment was imposed upon a store-keeper for the theft of several tins of paint and a number of cans of nut-oil.

Mr. Irving, a man was charged with having in his possession a number of counterfeit coins. He was arrested on June 22nd on board the M. M. s.s. Ho Nan which had returned from Canton. He was searched by an excise officer, the coins being found at the bottom of a box.

Mr. Shenton appeared on behalf of the defendant, who should order two new cars from Manila. Defendant went with Chang on March 17 and ordered the cars on behalf of the Ho Nan. THE BUDGET DEBATE GOVERNMENT NEARLY DEFEATED.
The Ten Duti.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

LONDON, June 25.
In the Budget Debate in the House of Commons, on the Report Stage of the Tax Resolution, Mr. Cooper, a Unionist member, moved a reduction of a penny on the duty on tea grown within the Empire.

Mr. Masterman, Under Secretary for the Home Office, resisted the Amendment on the ground that it raised the "tattered banner" of Colonial preference.

GOVERNMENT MAJORITY 22.

The Amendment was rejected by 199 votes to 177—The Government's majority 22.

CRIES OF "RESIGN."

The figures were received with Opposition cheers and cries of "Resign."

The smallness of the majority was due to the slack attendance of the Ministerialists during a week of non-controversial business.

UNIONISTS MUSTER IN FORCE.

There were few Unionists about the House, but when the division was called they suddenly mustered force and nearly brought the Government to disaster.

BUDGET RESOLUTIONS PASSED.

All the Budget resolutions were passed.

RADICALS CRITICISE THE BUDGET.

The Finance Bill was read a first time, the feature of the debate being Mr. Lloyd George's announcement that a certain number of Radicals were criticizing further expenditure of the Naval and Colonial Loan.

OBJECTION TO COLONIAL LOAN.

Mr. Wedgwood, a Liberal member, objected to taxpayers' money being taken for the benefit of the landlords of Nyasaland. He would be glad to see it applied to Nigeria, where the land belonged to the Crown.

HER MAJESTIES AT CARDIFF.

THE MAYOR KNIGHTED.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

LONDON, June 25.
At the civic welcome at Cardiff, on the occasion of the visit of the King and Queen, His Majesty conferred the honour of knighthood upon the Mayor.

In the Coronation's Address, it was suggested that the establishment of a Welsh home for the Prince of Wales would be received with enthusiasm by Welshmen.

The King, in his reply, dwelt upon the loyalty of the Principality and the part played by her coalfields in maintaining the efficiency of the fleet. It was greatly to be desired that all classes would be united for the common weal and for the common good, and His Majesty trusted that the recent laws would make for the increased safety of the miners and for a more cordial feeling between all engaged in coal mining.

THEIR MAJESTIES VISIT A COALFIELD.

LATER.

Their Majesties on visiting a South Wales coalfield to see the industrial conditions, met with an enthusiastic reception at Cardiff.

FORTHCOMING BYE-ELECTION.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

LONDON, June 26.
The new appointment of Colonel Seely has necessitated his seeking re-election at Ilkeston, Derbyshire. The Secretary for War will be opposed by Mr. Freeman, who is the Unionist candidate. A "straight fight" is anticipated.

AN EXTRAORDINARY SCENE.

A Champion of the Suffragettes.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

LONDON, June 26.
A furious scene took place in the House of Commons yesterday at Question Time, when Mr. Asquith said that Mr. McKenna had offered to release the Suffragettes provided they undertook not to repeat their offence.

AN ENRAGED LABOURITE.

Mr. George Lansbury, the Labour member for Tower Hamlets, Bow and Bromley, at this stage, shouted denunciations against the Government, walked up to the Treasury Bench and shook his fist in the faces of the Ministers.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

LONDON, June 26.
A later message states that Mrs. Pankhurst was released after a "hunger strike" of five days. She was in a very weak condition.

Mrs. Pathwick Lawrence is also ill, being forcibly fed. (She has since been released.)

AN ENRAGED LABOURITE.

Mr. George Lansbury, the Labour member for Tower Hamlets, Bow and Bromley, at this stage, shouted denunciations against the Government, walked up to the Treasury Bench and shook his fist in the faces of the Ministers.

GOVERNMENT MAJORITY 22.

The Amendment was rejected by 199 votes to 177—The Government's majority 22.

CRIES OF "RESIGN."

The figures were received with Opposition cheers and cries of "Resign."

The smallness of the majority was due to the slack attendance of the Ministerialists during a week of non-controversial business.

UNIONISTS MUSTER IN FORCE.

There were few Unionists about the House, but when the division was called they suddenly mustered force and nearly brought the Government to disaster.

BUDGET RESOLUTIONS PASSED.

All the Budget resolutions were passed.

RADICALS CRITICISE THE BUDGET.

The Finance Bill was read a first time, the feature of the debate being Mr. Lloyd George's announcement that a certain number of Radicals were criticizing further expenditure of the Naval and Colonial Loan.

OBJECTION TO COLONIAL LOAN.

Mr. Wedgwood, a Liberal member, objected to taxpayers' money being taken for the benefit of the landlords of Nyasaland. He would be glad to see it applied to Nigeria, where the land belonged to the Crown.

HER MAJESTIES AT CARDIFF.

THE MAYOR KNIGHTED.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

LONDON, June 25.
At the civic welcome at Cardiff, on the occasion of the visit of the King and Queen, His Majesty conferred the honour of knighthood upon the Mayor.

In the Coronation's Address, it was suggested that the establishment of a Welsh home for the Prince of Wales would be received with enthusiasm by Welshmen.

The King, in his reply, dwelt upon the loyalty of the Principality and the part played by her coalfields in maintaining the efficiency of the fleet. It was greatly to be desired that all classes would be united for the common weal and for the common good, and His Majesty trusted that the recent laws would make for the increased safety of the miners and for a more cordial feeling between all engaged in coal mining.

THEIR MAJESTIES VISIT A COALFIELD.

LATER.

Their Majesties on visiting a South Wales coalfield to see the industrial conditions, met with an enthusiastic reception at Cardiff.

QUEEN ALEXANDRA'S CHARITABLE SCHEME

8,000 LADIES SELL ROSES IN THE STREETS.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

LONDON, June 26.
It is anticipated that the hospitals and charities with which Queen Alexandra has been identified will largely benefit by to-day's gigantic rose sale, when 8,000 ladies, including leaders of society, will sell artificial wild roses in the streets in commemoration of Queen Alexandra's arrival in England.

Mrs. Pathwick Lawrence is also ill, being forcibly fed. (She has since been released.)
